

Personal Vision Development

1. Imagine an occasion when a person has read your book. Describe their experience. What do they look like? How do they feel? What words would you use to describe them?

2. Describe your personal vision.

- a. If the people could be exactly the kind of person that would read your book, what qualities would they have?
- b. What is the ideal person that reads your book?
- c. What is your desire for the readers of your book?
- d. What type of actions would you like for your readers to take after reading your book?
- e. What type of activities would your readers to participate in after reading your book?

3. What is your personal vision for writing your book?
